FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (C)

WEEK COMMENCING 3RD JULY 2022

Jesus's appointment of the seventy-two disciples and sending them for the mission of evangelisation in today's Gospel, is a reminder that Christ needs us as His followers to commit our lives and times to spreading the Gospel message of salvation, peace, joy, and healing. The appointment of the seventy-two disciples has a reflection of the seventy Jewish elders who went up with Moses on Sinai and saw the glory of God (Exodus 24:1-9). God later instructed Moses to choose seventy elders and He imparted in them the spirit He has given to Moses, (Number 11:16-17). We like the seventy-two disciples in today's Gospel are called to participate in the evangelical mission of the Church. Jesus sent 36 teams of two. The reasons for pairing include mutual support, bearing of witness to the truth of their testimony, and living the embodiment of the Gospel of Peace. The most famous biblical missionary pair was that of Paul and Barnabas, (cf. Acts 13). In Christian service, there is no unemployment; God has enough work for every one of us. So, don't just sit back and watch others work, involve yourself in the harvest which is rich but labourers are few.

DAILY	Morning Prayer	at 9.15 am

THE POPE'S INTENTIONS FOR JULY: For the Elderly. We pray for the elderly, who represent the roots and memory of a people; may their experience and wisdom help young people to look towards the future with hope and responsibility.

MARRIAGE MATTERS: (Isaiah 66:10-14; Gal 6:14-18; Luke 10:1-12, 17-20) Romance is at the core of our calling. The theme of today's readings is rejoicing. Those who have had to be away from home know the thrill of returning – the hug, the kiss and perhaps making love. But when every day is much like any other, we can lose the spark and we need to remember that romance is at the very core of our calling.

PRAYERS FOR THE SICK: We continue to pray for those parishioners we know who are sick and housebound especially Elizabeth Pace, Hilda Morah, Nicollas and Adam Campbell-Vencarto, Jim Lynas, Maureen R. We pray for all persons who are ill or have contracted Covid-19 and their families.
