THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (B)

Week commencing 24th October 2021

Bartimeus may have been blind but he certainly was not without a vision. Blind and begging at the side of the road, Bartimeus has nothing but a cloak to his name. He could be seen a symbol of sadness, stress or worse still a state of sin. Hearing a man passing by he exercises his faith. St Paul tells us that faith comes through hearing and hearing of the word of God Romans 10:17. Bartimeus believed that when the Messiah came he could make all things new. So with nothing to lose, he takes what he has seen with the eyes of his faith and calls out Son of David have pity on me. The crowd who have physical sight see in Jesus a miracle worker, a great preacher. Bartimeus however, the beggar with no physical sight has insight, he “sees” and believes here is more than a miracle worker here is the promised Messiah. More keenly aware of his need it seems Bartimeus had a poor spirit and a pure heart he could see God Matthew 5:8. His poverty made him helpless but his faith ensured that he was not hopeless. Seizing the moment, his human need met divine grace and a life-changing encounter took place. If with faith, we take our sadness, stress and most importantly our sin to the Christ in the sacraments we too will be changed and can be empowered to rise up with new sight and follow Jesus to the green pastures of new life.

Fr. Paschal

MARRIAGE MATTERS: (Jeremiah 31: 7-9 Hebrews 5: 1-6 Mark 10: 46-52) Ask and you will receive.

The prophet tells us today that if we ask, the Lord will always comfort, lead and guide us, so that we will not stumble. Jesus' response to Bartimaeus – "What do you want me to do for you?" – points the way. In marriage we become mirrors of God's saving help, supporting each other and being sure guides for our children
