FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER (B)

World day of Prayer for Vocations

Week Commencing 25th APRIL 2021

In my experience finding your vocation twins with discovering your greatest treasure. Put another way, when we have found that for which we would give our life, then we have found that which truly gives us life. In Sundays Gospel Jesus tells us He is the good shepherd who has laid down His life for His sheep. Interestingly, this statement comes directly after Jesus has just healed a blind man. The context suggests that he wants us to see and believe and that believing he wants us to have life and life to the full. Yes, He has come to lead us the blind, broken, helpless sheep in to the full sight and light of eternal life. Christ's death and resurrection protects us from danger and procures for us a path to eternal life. It reveals to us what we mean to Him, we in turn are moved to follow him with new faith, new hope and new love. Our vocation is love; the perfect union with God who is love. Through faith, our vocation is discovered as we come to know how much we are loved and valued. Through hope that vocation is nourished in times of prayer and through the sacraments. Finally, through Love that vocation is lived out in marriage, the single life, religious life and Holy Orders. Oh, lord help me to see that Christ the lamb has been sacrificed to save the sheep, and with you as my treasure and my shepherd there is nothing I shall want.

Fr. Paschal

THE POPE'S INTENTIONS FOR APRIL: Fundamental Rights. We pray for those who risk their lives while fighting for fundamental rights under dictatorships, authoritarian regimes and even in democracies in crisis.

MARRIAGE MATTERS: (Acts of the Apostles 4:8-12 1 John 3:1-2 John 10:11-18) We lay down our lives, we go beyond. Couples can relate to the notion of 'shepherding' with regards to their children: "I know my own and my own know me". Even in crowds, our children will recognise our voices and we theirs. Also, just as Jesus spoke today of 'laying down His life', when marrying, we made a solemn vow to lay down our lives for one another.

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Despite all the restrictions, let us be thankful that we can once again gather together, despite social distancing, as God's people. Please note the following norms which remain in place in order to promote a COVID 19 safe environment :-
